

Photography Contest

Opens: October 1, 2010

Calling all Southwest Georgia Photographers!!

We're looking for the best photo you can snap that embodies what life in Southwest Georgia is all about. Whether you are an amateur or professional, we want you to hit us with your best shot!

The Southwest Georgia Regional Commission is working on the Regional Plan, which will shape future development throughout the region. What better way to open this significant document than with a graphic depiction of a day in Southwest Georgia.

The winning photograph will serve as the cover for this important document that will be viewed statewide. Submissions should capture the essence of Southwest Georgia and what makes life in this region unique from the rest of the State.

Photographs must be submitted electronically in JPEG format to lmiller@swgrc.org by:

Thursday, November 4, 2010 @ 5:00 p.m.

The submissions of the top three finalists will be posted on our website for the region to vote on. Each submission should include a brief description of where the photo was taken and why it embodies Southwest Georgia. The photograph that receives the most online votes will be declared the winner!

Please include with your submissions the photographers name, address, phone number and e-mail address. The contest winners will be notified by phone and e-mail.
