Mrs. Angell proceeded to give the Executive Director's report. Currently we have nine disbursed microloans totaling $345,000, or 69% of the $500,000 fund. We are also currently holding two incomplete applications. The Southwest Georgia Regional Commission was selected by the Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT) to receive assistance from GDOT to develop a regional transit development (TDP) plan. Eight Regional Commissions applied for this opportunity and two were selected. The request for defederalization of EDA RLF funds was approved by the Economic Development Authority (EDA). The agreement was signed in mid-November. Mrs. Angell asked the council to review the updated FY22 Work Program and Activities in their packets. She said that we expect awards to be announced soon for several grants that we have recently submitted. The SWGRC is currently assisting six local governments with redistricting. She asked the Council if their local government needs assistance with redistricting they can contact our GIS Manger, Heidi Penny. Ms. Angell stated that she had attended a meeting that day in Decatur County to discuss the lack of mental health facilities in our region and most specifically, the burden this crisis is putting on our county jail, hospitals and other agencies. After much discussion, Ms. Angell asked the Council members to contact their local legislators to see how they can assist. Mr. Michael Bryant said he would follow up on this issue to see how Congressman Sanford Bishop may be able to assist. Executive Director Angell concluded by letting the council know she is always available for questions.

Chairman Nagy announced his appointments for the 2021 Nominating Committee. They are as follows, Barbara Grogan as Chairman, Chad Griffin, Wanda Warren, Mitchell Blanks, and Charlie Sol. The Nominating Committee will meet prior to the January council meeting to choose a slate of officers for 2022 to recommend to the full Council. The Council will then be allowed to make other nominations and the vote will occur during the February council meeting since nominations are to be tabled for 30 days.

Chairman Nagy then read the names of those council members that achieved 100% attendance for the calendar year 2021. Those receiving recognition were Charlie Williams, Charlie Sol, Al Hutchins, Jr., Donnie Baggett, Wanda Warren, Al Bryan, and Elaine Mays. The Thomas County appointees were recognized for their 100% attendance for 2021.

Chairman ^{Nagy} Mays stated if there was no other business, the next meeting will be January 27, 2021. The place is to be determined. Donnie Baggett made a motion to adjourn. Benny Jones seconded the motion to adjourn; all agreed. The meeting adjourned at approximately 7:55 p.m.
